2 These T&C

2.1 Our events, whether physical or virtual are directed at business professionals and are not directed at individuals, consumers or children. By entering into these T&C you warrant and represent that you are a business professional and have authority and power to legally bind the Client to these T&C.

2.2 These T&C set out the terms on which the Client agrees to exhibit at, sponsor, or provide Advertising Content in respect of, the Event. If any element of the Event is made available virtually to remote delegates additional terms shall also apply as set out in Clause 5. These T&C shall come into force on the day the Organiser receives a copy of the Booking Contract which has been signed by the Client or when an appropriate electronic signature is applied in respect of the Client through such electronic signatures application as is adopted by the Organiser from time to time (the Effective Date) and shall, unless terminated earlier in accordance with these T&C, expire 30 days after the later of: (i) completion of the Event; (ii) if applicable, the end of the Dismantling Period (as defined in Clause 4.7); (iii) if applicable, the date on which content and materials relating to the Event are no longer accessible by the Client on the Event Platform; or (iv) if applicable, the date the Media Partner has delivered any post-Event Advertising Content to the Organiser (the Term). For the avoidance of doubt, the Organiser may in its sole discretion accept or reject any Booking Contract submitted to it by the Client. If the Organiser rejects the Booking Contract, it will refund to the Client any Fees paid by the Client and these T&C shall terminate automatically. Any additional terms and conditions provided to the Organiser by the Client and not agreed by the Parties in the Booking Contract shall not have legal effect and shall be deemed withdrawn by the Client upon entry into these T&C. For clarity, obligations in respect of Event delegates are set out in the separate Delegate T&C.

2.3 The Event is organised by the Organiser as licenced by the Licensors.

3 General

3.1 The Client shall not, and shall ensure that its representatives shall not, cause any physical damage to the Venue, the Space (if applicable) or any property of the Organiser or any other sponsor or exhibitor. The Client is responsible for the cost of making good any such physical damage, whether caused by itself or third parties engaged on its behalf.

3.2 The Parties shall comply with Applicable Laws including, for the avoidance of doubt, all applicable data privacy and data protection laws or regulations. Organiser and Licensors are recipients and independent controllers according to Applicable Laws in accordance with the applicable data privacy and data protection laws or regulations.

3.3 The Client shall comply with any Additional Terms (together with all instructions from time to time from the Organiser, Venue management or security personnel or from the Event Platform operator or administrator during the operation of the Event).

3.4 The Parties shall only use the other Party's representatives' (including any Client speaker's) personal data in accordance with their respective privacy policy. The Parties will each ensure that each of its representatives has read this privacy policy. The Organiser's policy is available at www.dmgevents.com/privacy-policy/.The Licensors' privacy policies are available at https://messe-muenchen.de/en/privacy-policy/ and https://www.mmiasia.com/privacy/.

3.5 Parties acknowledge that the terms of the Organiser's licence to use the Venue may only permit the Organiser to photograph, video or take audio recordings of the Event and, if applicable, the Event Platform.

3.6 By attending the Event, the Client and all representatives and guests of the Client consent to their photographic and video image to be captured by the Organiser for promotional and advertising purposes. Further, the Client and all representatives and guests of the Client acknowledge and accept that the capturing and use of such images does not in any way infringe or impair their privacy or right to privacy.

4 Exhibitors

4.1 This Clause 4 applies only if the Organiser has agreed to provide Exhibitor Products to the Client in the Booking Contract.

4.2 The Organiser shall provide the Client with the Exhibitor Products in accordance with the terms of the Booking Contract. Such provision shall be to a standard of reasonable skill and care and in accordance with Applicable Laws.

4.3 The Organiser shall, in its sole discretion, allocate space at the Venue between exhibitors (Space). Subject always to the Client's compliance with these T&C, the Organiser grants the Client a licence to occupy the Space (or an equivalent right to occupy Space under any applicable local law) solely to the extent necessary to display the Exhibits in order to promote the Client's business (or the business of any Client Occupier approved pursuant to paragraph 3 of the Client Occupier Terms in Appendix C) for the duration of the Term.

4.4 The Organiser reserves the right to make alterations to the lay-out or floor plan of the Event and the position of the Space in the Venue at any time prior to or (acting reasonably) during the Event. Equipment may not extend into the aisles, over the aisles, or across other exhibitor space and any heights and depths specified by the Organiser must be observed. The Client shall ensure that all Space and Exhibits are in keeping with the general character of the Event. If any Exhibit (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any audio and visual content) is determined by the Organiser (acting reasonably) to be offensive or inappropriate or to not comply with Applicable Laws, the Client must promptly cease use of such Exhibit.

4.5 The Client shall ensure that the Space is staffed by competent, and appropriately trained and vetted, representatives of the Client during the opening hours of the Event, and that such representatives shall conduct the Client's business from the Space only, and not from any other area in the Venue. Organiser reserves the right (acting reasonably) to refuse admission to, or to eject from, the Event (whether physical or virtual) any Client attendee who in the Organiser's reasonable opinion places the Client in breach of these T&C, damages property or who represents a security risk, nuisance or annoyance to the running of the Event.

4.6 Allocation of the Space by the Organiser shall not imply that the Organiser accepts or endorses the proposed Exhibits. The Organiser may, at the expense of the Client, alter, exclude and/or require to be removed any Exhibit, if it is necessary to do so in the interests of the Event or to comply with Applicable Laws.

4.7 The Client shall install at its sole cost any Exhibits during the period for the installation of Exhibits at the Venue, as notified by the Organiser to the Client and remove such Exhibits during the period for removal of all Exhibits from the Venue, as notified by the Organiser to the Client (the Dismantling Period).

4.8 To the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Laws, all Exhibits shall be at the sole risk of the Client and the Organiser assumes no responsibility for any loss or damage thereto.

5 Virtual Terms

If any part of the Event is to be held virtually, the Parties agree to comply with the additional terms set out in Appendix A (the Virtual Terms).

6 Sponsorship Products

If the Organiser has agreed to provide Sponsorship Products to the Client in the Booking Contract, the Organiser shall provide the Client with the Sponsorship Products in accordance with the terms of the Booking Contract. Such provision shall be to a standard of reasonable skill and care and in accordance with Applicable Laws.

7 Media Partner Terms and Client Occupier Terms

7.1 If the Client is a Media Partner, the Parties agree to comply with the terms of Appendix B (Media Partner Terms).

7.2 If the Client wishes to request the use of Space by a Client Occupier (defined in Appendix C), the Parties agree to comply with the terms of Appendix C (Client Occupier Terms).

8 Intellectual property rights

8.1 The Parties acknowledge that, as between them:

(a) each Party owns all intellectual property rights owned or created by that Party (or on a Party's behalf):

(i) prior to the Effective Date; or

(ii) during the Term, independently from the performance of that Party's obligations or exercise of its rights under these T&C,

(Background IPR), and neither Party shall have any rights in respect of the other's Background IPR other than those granted pursuant to Clauses 8.4 and 8.5. For clarity, as between the Parties: (i) all intellectual property rights in Media Partner Brands (as defined in paragraph 4 of the Media Partner Terms) shall be Client's Background IPR; and (ii) if applicable, all intellectual property rights in the Event Platform shall be deemed to be Organiser Background IPR; and

(b) the Organiser owns:

(i) all intellectual property rights in Advertising Content and Organiser Content (as defined in paragraph 7 of the Media Partner Terms), save in respect of any Client Background IPR incorporated therein; and

(ii) any other intellectual property rights generated or developed by the Organiser, or by a third party on the Organiser's behalf, in connection with the Event or otherwise pursuant to these T&C (including all recordings and broadcasts made in respect of the Event, including of speakers and presentations), but excluding Client Event Content (defined below),

(the Organiser's New IPR); and

(c) the Client owns:

(i) any material, information, data or content (in each case, whether digital or hard copy), including any presentation deck, technical papers, photograph, video or audio recording, generated or produced by or on behalf of the Client and provided or made available to the Organiser by the Client for use in respect of the Event (other than Advertising Content) (Client Event Content); and

(ii) any other intellectual property rights generated or developed by the Client, or by a third party on the Client's behalf, in connection with the Event or otherwise pursuant to these T&C, which are not Organiser's New IPR.

8.2 Each Party hereby assigns to the other (or on request, to the relevant rights holder) with full title guarantee all legal and beneficial title and interest that Party has or may have in or relation to any intellectual property rights expressed to be owned by the other Party in accordance with Clause 8.1 from the date of its creation.

8.3 To the extent that the Organiser owns the relevant intellectual property rights, the Organiser hereby grants to the Client for the Term a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, revocable and royalty-free licence to: (i) subject to sub-clause (ii), use the Organiser's Background IPR and the Organiser's New IPR solely to the extent necessary for the Client to participate in the Event as contemplated by these T&C; and (ii) to use intellectual property rights owned by the Organiser in Advertising Content and Organiser Content solely for the purposes permitted under (and subject to) the Media Partner Terms, subject to any branding guidelines and instructions notified by the Organiser to the Client.

8.4 The Client hereby grants (or shall procure the grant) to the Organiser:

(a) an irrevocable, non-exclusive, freely-transferable, worldwide and royalty-free licence (with the right to freely sub-license) to use, copy, distribute, disclose to third parties, reproduce, adapt, translate or modify all intellectual property rights in the Client Event Content for any advertising, marketing or promotional materials relating to the Event or any other events held by the Organiser or its Affiliates or on the Event Platform operated by the Organiser or its Affiliates. This license shall survive termination of these T&C and the Client shall ensure that all moral rights in any Client Event Content are not asserted; and

(b) for the Term a non-exclusive, non-transferable, worldwide and royalty-free licence (without the right to sub-license, other than to its subcontractors or Affiliates) to use Media Partner Brands and Media Partner Content solely for the purposes permitted under (and subject to) the Media Partner Terms.

8.5 The Client warrants that the Client Event Content will not infringe the copyright or any other right of any third party or breach any contract or duty of confidence or data protection law or other legislation relating to national security, or be inappropriate, obscene, defamatory or otherwise unlawful.

9 Confidentiality

Each Party undertakes that it shall not, at any time during the Term and for a period of three (3) years thereafter, disclose to any person any confidential information concerning the business, affairs, customers, clients or suppliers of the other Party (including, for the avoidance of doubt, these T&C) (Confidential Information) for any other purpose other than to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under or in connection with these T&C. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party may disclose the other Party's Confidential Information:

(a) to its employees, officers, representatives or advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of exercising the Party's rights or carrying out its obligations under or in connection with these T&C, provided that the disclosing Party ensures that its employees, officers, representatives or advisers to whom it discloses the other Party's Confidential Information comply with this Clause 9;

(b) to its Affiliates if the disclosing Party is the Organiser, provided that the Organiser ensures that any such Affiliate complies with this Clause 9; and

(c) as may be required by Applicable Laws.

10 Fees and payment

10.1 The Client shall pay the Fees on the terms specified in the Booking Contract. All Fees are exclusive of applicable taxes (e.g. VAT or sales tax) and the Client shall pay a sum equal to the amount of VAT, sales or such equivalent tax chargeable, in addition to the Fees.

10.2 The Client shall make all payments of the Fees to the Organiser without any deduction or withholding for or on account of tax (a Tax Deduction), unless a Tax Deduction is required by law. If a Tax Deduction is required by law to be made by the Client, the amount of Fees due from the Client shall be increased to an amount which (after making any Tax Deduction) leaves an amount equal to the Fees which would have been due if no Tax Deduction had been required.

10.3 In the event that Client does not pay any part of the Fees by the relevant due date specified in the Booking Contract, the Organiser may (without prejudice to any other rights the Organiser may have):

(a) charge the Client interest on any amounts which are due and unpaid, at a rate per year of 2% above the then current Barclays Bank plc's base rate, calculated daily from the due date until the date of payment;

(b) refuse to provide any Exhibitor Products or Sponsorship Products; or

(c) prohibit the Client from displaying any Exhibits and/or occupying the Space and/or block the Client from using the Event Platform; and/or

(d) use the Event Platform or Space in such a way as the Organiser deems fit.

11 Changes to the Event

The Organiser reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change the Venue, format, content or timing of the Event programme, the virtual location or hosting medium of the Event or Event Platform or the identity of any speakers or exhibitors for any reason and without liability to the Client, provided that the Event, as altered, is similar to the Event as originally advertised. For the avoidance of doubt, in these circumstances, the Fees shall remain payable in full to the extent not already paid, and the Organiser shall not be required to refund the Client for any proportion of the Fees or otherwise be held liable for any other costs or expenses incurred by the Client in connection with the Event.

12 Cancellation by the Client

In the event that the Client wishes to cancel its participation in the Event, the Client shall give the Organiser prior written notice of the same (Client Cancellation Notice). Depending on the date of receipt of the Client Cancellation Notice, and provided the Client has not already paid the relevant Fees pursuant to Clause 10, the Client shall pay to the Organiser a cancellation charge equal to the amount of Fees due and payable by the Client as at the date of receipt of the Client Cancellation Notice (and for the avoidance of doubt any amounts paid prior to such date, such as any deposit or pre-paid charges, shall not be refundable).

13 Cancellation or postponement by the Organiser

13.1 The Organiser reserves the right to postpone or cancel the Event pursuant to Clause 13.2 below at any time and for any reason during the Term and will provide the Client with notice of any such postponement or cancellation in writing (including by email) as soon as is reasonably practicable in advance of the Event.

13.2 If the Organiser:

(a) postpones the Event and the Client can no longer attend the postponed Event (and Client shall respond to the Organiser as soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of such postponement notice), the Organiser shall issue the Client with a credit note to the value of all Fees paid by the Client; or

(b) cancels the Event, the Organiser shall issue the Client with a full refund of all Fees paid by the Client.

The Client acknowledges that the remedies described this Clause 13.2 are the Client's exclusive remedies in the event of postponement or cancellation by the Organiser, and (to the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Laws) in no event shall the Organiser be liable for any loss, delay, damage or other liability incurred by the Client in connection with the Organiser's postponement or cancellation of the Event, howsoever arising, including but not limited to the Client's accommodation and travel costs.

14 Force Majeure Events

14.1 Neither the Client nor the Organiser (the "affected party") shall be in breach of these T&C nor liable for any delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under these T&C if such delay or failure results from a Force Majeure Event. In such circumstances, the affected party shall use its reasonable endeavours to notify the other of the relevant circumstances and likely duration and consequences of the Force Majeure Event as soon as reasonably practicable. Without prejudice to Clause 14.2 the time for performance by the affected party of these T&C shall be extended by a period equivalent to the period during which performance of the affected party's obligation has been delayed or failed to be performed.

14.2 If a Force Majeure Event occurs (or in the Organiser's opinion, acting in good faith, is likely to occur) and results (or is likely to result) in the Event being unable to take place as contemplated by these T&C, the Organiser may, in its sole discretion:

(a) change the timing, date, Venue, virtual location or hosting medium of the Event or the Event Platform, provided that the Event, as altered, is similar to the Event as originally advertised. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Organiser exercises its right to change the Event pursuant to this Clause 14.2(a), this shall not entitle the Client to cancel its participation in the Event, or make any claim for refunds or otherwise against the Organiser; or

(b) cancel the Event, in which case the Organiser shall issue the Client with a full refund, or a credit note to the value of, all Fees paid by the Client to the Organiser. The Client acknowledges that refund or a credit note in respect of all Fees paid by the Client is the Client's exclusive remedy if the Organiser cancels pursuant to this Clause14.2(b).

15 Indemnity

15.1 The Client indemnifies the Organiser and each of its Affiliates against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses, whatsoever and howsoever arising, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, directly or indirectly, suffered or incurred by the Organiser or any of its Affiliates in connection with any breach of Clause 3.1 (General).

15.2 Each Party indemnifies the other Party ("indemnified party") against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses, whatsoever and howsoever arising, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, directly or indirectly, suffered or incurred by the indemnified party or any of its Affiliates in connection with any claim made by a third party against the indemnified party or any of its Affiliates for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's intellectual property rights (including, for clarity, any rights in know-how) arising out of or in connection with these T&C (save to the extent caused by a breach of these T&C by the indemnified party).

16 Limitation of liability

16.1 Subject to Clause 16.2:

(a) the Organiser's total, aggregate liability whether arising in contract, tort (including negligence), misrepresentation, restitution or otherwise under or in connection with these T&C shall be limited to 100% of the Fees paid by the Client; and

(b) the Client's total, aggregate liability whether arising in contract, tort (including negligence), misrepresentation, restitution or otherwise under or in connection with these T&C shall be limited to $2,000,000.

16.2 Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, nothing in these T&C shall exclude or limit the liability of either Party for death or personal injury caused by either Party's negligence or for fraud or for any liability that may not be limited or excluded by Applicable Laws.

16.3 The Organiser shall not be liable to the Client for any: (i) loss of profits, loss of sales or business, loss of agreements or contracts or loss of anticipated savings (whether directly or indirectly arising); (ii) loss of or damage to goodwill or reputation (whether directly or indirectly arising); or (iii) any indirect or consequential loss.

16.4 All warranties, conditions and other terms implied by law are, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Laws, excluded from these T&C. In particular Organiser gives no warranty, representation or other assurance in relation to: (a) the presence or location of any exhibitor, sponsor or attendee, (b) the number or mix of exhibitors, sponsors or attendees, and/or (c) the results or benefits (commercial or otherwise) that may be associated with being an exhibitor, sponsor, media partner or attendee in respect of the Event.

16.5 If any part of the Event is to be held virtually and notwithstanding any other provision in these T&C, to the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Laws, the Organiser shall not be liable for: (a) any loss or damage due to temporary unavailability of the Event Platform as per paragraph 10 of the Virtual Terms; (b) any loss or damage caused by any content on the Event Platform (including content available to download or from third party links); (c) libellous or unlawful postings made on the Event Platform; or (d) any postings on the Event Platform which infringe the intellectual property rights of others.

17 Insurance

17.1 The Client shall arrange and maintain its own insurance against all relevant risks and in respect of each of its obligations under these T&C for the duration of the Term.

17.2 If the Client is allocated Space at the Venue, as a minimum, the insurance cover required by Clause 17.1 must provide public liability insurance cover of at least $2,000,000 in respect of damage or loss for any reason, including negligence.

17.3 The Client shall promptly produce, upon the Organiser's request, evidence of the insurance cover required by Clause 17.1.

18 Termination of these T&C

18.1 Without prejudice to its other rights and remedies under these T&C, the Organiser may immediately terminate these T&C by issuing written notice to the Client if:

(a) the Client commits a material breach of any of its obligations under these T&C (including failure to pay any part of the Fees in accordance with Clause 10) and has not remedied such breach (if capable of remedy) within seven (7) days of being required to do so by written notice;
